

2016 QinetiQ Goldrick Seminar
20 October 2016
Maritime Operations in the Littoral

Program

Venue: Lecture Theatre North LT 7

Lieutenant Commander Desmond Woods (MC)

Time	Presentation	Speaker
	Session 1: Understanding the Issues
0830	Registration & Coffee/Tea
0900	Administrative Remarks	Mr Andrew Blyth (ACSACS)
0905	Welcome	Professor Michael Frater (Rector - UNSW-AFDA)
0910	Opening Remarks	Vice Admiral (retired) Peter Jones (ANI President)
0920	The Defence Minister's Perspective	Senator the Hon Marise Payne (Minister for Defence)
0950	Trends in Ocean Resources & Security	Professor Stuart Kaye (Australian National Centre for Ocean Resources & Security)
1020	The spectrum of Littoral Operations	Commodore Jay Bannister (J5 - Headquarters Joint Operations)
1050	Morning Tea
1115	Border Protection - Now & into the Future	Rear Admiral Peter Laver (Commander Maritime Border Command)
1145	Amphibious operations - an operational level view of RAN's new capability	Captain Brett Sonter (Commander Amphibious TG)
1215	Telling the Maritime & Littoral Story	A conversation led by Professor Frame; speakers Cameron Stewart (The Australian), CDR Fenn Kemp & LTCOL Mike Harris
1300	Lunch
	Session 2: Looking to the Future
1330	Future Naval Capabilities for Littoral operations	Commodore Stephen Hughes (Director General Littoral)
1400	New solutions to enduring missions: QinetiQ perspective	Stuart Taylor (QinetiQ)
1430	An Army Perspective on Australia's Maritime Strategy	Colonel Chris Smith (Army Modernisation & Strategic Planning)
1500	New Paradigm in Aerial Surveillance	Group Captain Roger McCutcheon (Air Force Headquarters)
1530	Importance of Joint Mission Planning	Tim Wedding - Sigma Bravo
1605	Concluding Remarks	Rear Admiral James Goldrick
1615	Afternoon Tea & book launch of BZ by CN Venue: Building 32 ('Camouflage' Building)	Vice Admiral Tim Barrett (Chief of Navy) & Dr Ian Pfennigwerth