President
Australian Naval Institute
PO Box 241
DEAKIN WEST ACT 2600

Dear Admiral Jones,

On the behalf of the nearly 50,000 members of the United States Naval Institute, I am pleased to extend a special invitation to the members of the Australian Naval Institute.

In recognition of our nations' long-standing alliance, we are offering our Australian friends a discounted membership rate.

Both of our organizations share a similar mission of providing an independent forum for those who dare to read, think, speak, and write to advance the professional, literary, and scientific understanding of sea power and other issues critical to global security.

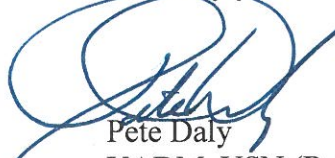

For more than 140 years, we have published Proceedings — the professional journal of the U.S. Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard — where Naval professionals debate strategy, policy, procurements, and other hot topics.

Starting today, members of the Australian Naval Institute have the opportunity to receive the monthly digital (on-line) edition of Proceedings and gain access to our vast archives at a special annual rate of $29.00 (US).

Australian Naval Institute members will also be eligible to access our digital archive of all 142 years of Proceedings, the world's largest privately-held military photo collection, our oral history collection, and receive member discounts on all books at the Naval Institute Press.

I invite you to claim your special discounted membership today at: www.usni.org/ANI

Sincerely yours,

Pete Daly
VADM, USN (Ret.)
