

Australian Naval Institute

Sydney Seminar

Guest Speaker

Commodore Peter Scott, CSC, RAN

Director General Submarine Capability

The significance of submarine capability for Australia – looking back a hundred years, and looking forward a hundred years from now

Sydney Mechanics School of Arts

280 Pitt Street, Sydney

Friday 23 May 2014, 5.00PM

This is an excellent opportunity to hear CDRE Scott speak and answer questions on submarine capability as one of the most important force structure elements within the Australian Defence Force, and Australia's primary deterrent force.

This will be a free seminar, open to all ANI members and their guests, and all others interested in the following topics:

5:00pm – 5:30pm	Report from the ANI AGM President's Report New publications strategy – new website and changing role for Headmark
5:30pm – 6:15pm	Commodore Peter Scott's address
6:15pm – 7.00pm	Open Forum

Following the ANI Seminar, the Submarine Institute of Australia will be hosting a reception. Cost $30.00 per person

To register for the free seminar and for the reception, please follow the link <https://ae1-2-arrival-reception.eventbrite.com.au>

For any further information please contact ANI Councillors

SBLT Matthew Bell RAN matthew.bell8@defence.gov.au or

CAPT Chris Skinner RAN (retired) 0414 990 834 cjskinner@acslink.net.au