Changing Times – Lasting Values. The men and women who gave our nation its story

The world is changing. It will not be changed back. The scale and pace of the transformation in our region and globally challenges us politically, diplomatically and economically.

Beyond the need for our leaders to articulate vision and oversee strategic planning, the nation in the centenary of the Anzac landings and all that followed, needs more than ever to draw on the rich repository of its history. For within it is who we were, who we are and the people we strive to become.

Dr Nelson held the offices of Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Defence, Minister for Education, Science and Training. He was Minister for Defence when troops were deployed to Iraq, Afghanistan, East Timor and the Solomon Islands. He oversaw major new investments in Defence including the decision to purchase 24 FA-18F super hornets, three air warfare destroyers, and two LHDs.

Dr Nelson served as Leader of the Opposition and as ambassador to the EU and NATO. He was appointed Director of the AWM in December 2012.
